Tuesday, October 21. 1707.

Paris, October 21.

THO the Court were under Apprehension of the Loss of Suza from the fifth Day it was Besieg'd, they could not forbear expressing their Concern at the News brought the 14th in the Morning of its being taken. The Marshal de Tefle is very much blam'd, for not thinking as soon as the Allies retreated from before Toulon of reinforcing the Garrison of that Place. The King has sent Orders to that Marshal to provide Fenestrelles with all things for its Defence, and to put his Men into Winter Quarters so that in Case of Need he may draw them together at a short Warning. The Courier who brought the News of the taking of Ciudad Rodrigo by Assault, reports, that the Garrison consisting mostly of Portuguese were put to the Sword, Quarter being given but to few in Order to strike a Terrour in other Parts. 'Tis presum'd, that the News of the taking of Ciudad Rodrigo, will work more towards the Relief of Moura than the Troops sent thither. And we flatter our selves here that great Consequences will attend this Blow. Our Court give great Application to the making Provision for carrying on the War the next Campaign: And Orders are sent to all the King's Lieutenants in the Provinces, to assist and favour the Officers that are spread throughout the Kingdom to lift Men. The Mint-Bills are current all over the Kingdom, but those at the greatest Distance from this Capital are at the greatest Discount. The French Officers in Spain are forc'd to negotiate them at between 50 and 60 per Cent Discount; and most of the General Officers find themselves oblig'd to serve at their own Expence.

Hague, Octob. 25. M. d'Auverquerque has sent his another Letter dated and sign'd on the Part of the Enemy, claiming M. Gautier. 'Tis alledg'd in this Letter, that the Enterprize of Colonel Guethem was more criminal than that of Gautier; because, supposing the former had a Commission and a Number of Men sufficient to be denominated a Party; yet he advanc'd too near to the King's Place of Residence: And that if like Actions should be allow'd, on the Danger only of being made Prisoners of War, no Sovereign would be safe in his own House. The States General have refer'd this Letter to the States of the Province of Holland, because the Court of Justice of that Province has taken Cognizance of the Affair of Gautier.

DUBLIN, The 6th of October, Mr. Connelly Reported from the Committee appointed to take into consideration the Petition of Thomas Gore and Simon Sherlock in behalf of themselves and 60 other Persons Creditors of Benjamin Taylor and Partners, That the Committee had Order'd him to Report the matter of Fact specially, and that they had come to several Resolutions thereupon, which he Read in his Place, and after deliver'd in at the Table, where the same was again Read, and the Resolutions were as follow.

Resolv'd, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Petitioners have fully prov'd the Allegations in the Petition, to the satisfaction of this Committee.

--- That Mr. Thomas Putland an under Officer of the Treasury, has unjustly taken, and illegally Extorted great Sums of Money upon pretence of Prompt Payment of Money payable by the Treasury upon several Clothing Warrants, and that such Practices tend to the prejudice of Her Majesty's Service, the great Decay of Trade and the Ruin of many poor Families in this Kingdom.

--- That Mr. Joseph Nuttall, Clerk to Mr. Putland, has unjustly taken and illegally Extorted several Sums of Money, upon pretence of Prompt payment of Money payable by the Treasury upon several Clothing Warrants, and that such Practices tend to the prejudice of Her Majesty's Service, the great Decay of Trade and the Ruin of many poor Families in this Kingdom.

--- That over and above the premiums taken for Advancing Money out of the Treasury, further Exactions have been made by the said Putland and Nuttall as a premium for the first premium.

--- That the Premium taken for discount of such Warrants by the said Putland and Nuttall is a Breach of the Trust repos'd in them and a high Misdemeanour.

--- That it is highly Prjudicial to Her Majesty's Service and a great detriment to the Trade of the Nation, that any Officer, Clerk or any other Person employ'd in the Treasury, or any Person in Trust for them, by any way concern'd in Cloathing the Army as Undertakers, Partners or otherwise, or discounting any Warrants drawn on the Treasury or taking any Fee or Reward for converting any Exchequer Acquittance into Money or Money for Advance or dealing in Merchandize.

--- That Thomas Putland, having notoriously betray'd the Trust in him repos'd, is unfit to serve in any publick Employment in this Kingdom.

To which Resolutions the Question being severally put, the House did agree. And Order'd, That Heads of a Bill be brought in for the Petitioners Relief.

A Petition of Joseph Nuttall Gent. setting forth, that he is willing to lodge the Sum of 1206 l. in the Hands of Mr. Burton and Mr. Harrison, to Refund to Benjamin Taylor and Partners, what shall appear due on Stating the Account, and praying the House will take his Misfortunes into Consideration, shas presented to the House and Read, and Order'd to lie on the Table till the Report from the Committee appointed to take into Consideration the Petition of Thomas Gore and Simon Sherlock be made.

The 7th of October, A further Petition of Thomas Gore and Simon Sherlock, in behalf of themselves and 60 other Creditors of James Leathley, Benjamin Taylor, and James Dungan. Setting forth, that Mr. Joseph Nuttall, having made full Satisfaction to the Petitioners by paying into the hands of Benjamin Burton and Francis Harrison Esquires, the Sum of 1206 l. for the use of the Petitioners in full of all their Demands against him, and praying in regard, The said Joseph Nuttall hath by such his

Restitution

Restitution shewn himself a true Penitent, and forasmuch as he is a very Young Man. That the House should be pleased to take the Submission and Restitution of the said Mr. Nuttall into Consideration, was presented to the House, and Read; and Order'd to lye on the Table.

Long before any such thing as a Venetian Strop was ever hatcht or thought on, were often publish'd the true Original Stropps for setting Razors, Pen-knives and Lancets to a most exquisite fine Edge, and polishing them to an extraordinary Brightness; and had not these been known to answer the just Character given them through the whole Nation, the Venetian Author had never Aped 'em under a Sham Title, and had the Impudence to impose that Name upon those he knows to be the true ones first publish'd in England; therefore beware of these and other Counterfeits, the True ones being only Sold at John's Coffee-house in Sweeting's Alley near the Royal Exchange, at 1 s. each, with directions sent to 'em, as hath been often mention'd in the Gazette: Foul flinging Gate Language (mention'd in a Paper call'd the Generous Advertiser) deserving no other Answer than this.
